

The Kingfisher

Brilliant blue-green plumage above a bright blue streak down its back and orange-checkered underparts make the kingfisher one of Britain's most brightly coloured birds. Nevertheless it is a shy bird and difficult to spot. It feeds on small fish and tadpoles from the ponds and rivers around which it lives throughout the year.

Damsely

Caterpillar

Harvestman spider

Two-spot ladybird

Mayfly

Garden spider

Common green grasshopper